

Bartram
MEWS
success

Away from the hustle and bustle but still perfectly connected - Bartram Mews, Success is near the retail and business hub of Cockburn Central offering all the essential amenities and community facilities expected of a quality residential estate.

Be spoilt for choice when it comes to quality education and medical facilities. Success and Jandakot Primary Schools are all within easy reach, as are other quality public and private schools and colleges. Plus, Murdoch University is just a couple of train stops away - as are St John of God and Fiona Stanley Hospitals.

Conveniently positioned between Cockburn Central and Aubin Grove Train Stations and with quick access to the Kwinana Freeway - the Perth CBD is just 30 minutes away. Closer to home Cockburn Gateway Shopping City has your shopping needs covered - with Coles, Woolworths, Target, Aldi, Big W and over 150 specialty stores, banks and services, as well as a variety of dining options.

With its own wetland reserve and nearby Thomson's Lake Nature Reserve - the Bartram Mews environs open to an abundance of space to stroll, play, run and relax. Venture further afield and you're just 25 minutes from the beachside playground of Rockingham and the vibrant arts and culture hub of Fremantle.
